The funeral will leave the Railway Terminus Hotel, Onehunga, this day (Tuesday), November 13th, for St Peter's Cemetery. Asher Bray was not related to the Onehunga Bray family. However, it was believed, initially, that the Mr A Bray, drowned at the wreck of SS Wairarapa was Arthur Bray, the 4th child of William and Hannah Bray of Onehunga. Arthur was, in 1894, in his twenties, living in Australia; and had indicated to his Onehunga family that he would visit Auckland in the near future. The Onehunga Bray family began to prepare for the funeral of Arthur at St Peter's Church, Onehunga. A telegram then arrived from Arthur saying that he was still in Australia and was well (see the newspapers of 3 Nov 1894.) Asher Bray (no relative) was buried in St Peter's Cemetery on 13 Nov. The actual plot is not known, but church records of the cemetery plots, drawn up in 1898, indicate that two Brays were buried in Plot 172; it is possible that the Onehunga Brays welcomed the body of Asher Bray into the care of their family plot which already held the body of their son Percy Daniel Bray. (This information comes from a number of sources including church records, the New Zealand Herald, the Auckland Star, and family researcher Alan Bray.)
